WEDDINGS

A bride and groom are standing in a rustic, stone-walled building with wooden beams. The bride is on the left, wearing a long, flowing white wedding dress with lace detailing and a floral crown. She is looking down and holding the hem of her dress. The groom is on the right, wearing a grey suit, a white shirt, and a yellow bow tie. He is looking at the bride and holding her hand. The background features a stone wall on the left and a wooden door in the center. A single light fixture hangs from the ceiling.
