they all looked absolutely stunning in them."

What was your theme?

"When it came to textures, we went for quite a rustic, boho kind of feel, along with a subtle, summery colour palette. With the venue being set on beautiful Dartmoor, we wanted to reflect the amazing surroundings we had been blessed with and keep quite a natural and relaxed vibe."

What was your best buy?

"I'd probably say the things we bought for the table centrepieces, such as copper lanterns, table numbers, hessian and custom name tags. We got it all from Etsy, so it all felt a bit more bespoke than if we had got it from a department store."

What was the highlight of your day?

"Oh, that's a tough one!

There were so many, it's genuinely hard to pick just one. However, seeing each other for the first time on the aisle was something so, so special. You might think you're prepared for it, but you'll never really know until you're standing there – emotion was flowing!"
